Notebook Headset H165

Make Internet calls and enjoy music and movies while on the go

- Portable design
- Works with notebook and desktop PCs as well as music and DVD players
- Travel case
- Noise filtering, in-line microphone with mute
- Interchangeable silicon tips in three different sizes

Make Internet calls and enjoy music and movies while on the go with the Logitech® Notebook Headset H165. The portable design makes it easy to slip into a bag to take with you. It works with notebook and desktop PCs as well as music and DVD players, so you can use the same headset to chat online or keep entertained (phones not supported). The included travel case protects your headset while on the go, and the noise filtering, in-line microphone helps reduce background noise, so you'll be heard clearly when voice and video chatting. Interchangeable silicon tips in three different sizes allow you to choose the fit that feels best.
